

RAREBK
378.1542
N278n
1992 c.2

RAREBK 378.1542 N278n 1992
c.2
[National-Louis University
yearbook]

FOR REFERENCE

RAREBK 378.1542 N278n 1992
c.2
[National-Louis University
yearbook]

National-Louis University

UNIVERSITY LIBRARY

EVANSTON CAMPUS

2840 Sheridan Road
Evanston, Illinois 60201
ILDS - NSLS

DEMCO

University Library
NATIONAL-LOUIS UNIVERSITY
Evanston, IL 60201

Welcome Aboard the Train of Thoughts

You have your ticket, so come aboard
NLU's "Train of Thoughts" and travel through a year of excitement, learning, memories and celebrations.

Evanston

National-Louis University, 1992

University Library
NATIONAL-LOUIS UNIVERSITY
Evanston, IL 60207

Thoughts of Friendship Stop Here

"Besides the great elementary ed program here, NLU offers many extracurricular activities for students to get involved in. Through two of these, the Commuter Association and the Student Ambassador Program, I have met many new people. I have also gained learning, planning, organizational, and leadership skills. I feel that more people should take advantage of the activities provided by NLU and get involved."

Susan Tabern

he unique structure of National has given us the opportunity to experience the community life of a small college.

With nine campuses and centers in many parts of the country, each site offers an opportunity to form significant, long-lasting friendships. We are able to know many of our fellow students and not get lost in a crowd of faces.

We are never alone no matter which campus or field site each of us attends. When we are sharing our views, opinions and discoveries in the classroom, we find ourselves carrying those exchanges outside the classroom setting, where they form the foundation for friendship.

Norio Furukawa cherishes the warmth of a friend from home. Renee Higgins, Claudia Carter and Amy Stahl—the three musketeers! Tera McCormick and Tracy Profice always back each other up. Susan Tabern shares a friendly smile. Marla Greenspan and Amy Muehleip toast to friendship. Joan Russo, Nicole Boldog, Tracy Leyden, and Jenna Justin give a huge hug. Cindy Wolski, Caren Herbin, Barb Lowth, Jodie Reeser, Laurie Stanley, Susan Knapp, Korrie McCarry, and Grace Hwang "bond".

Riding the Rails of Diversity

*"What precarious fortresses we build for ourselves! Consider the surreal
..."*

Jeffrey Rose

The word "diversity" means a lot of different things. At NLU it means we are part of a community that contains not only people of different ethnicities but also people of all ages and life experiences. We are the traditional freshmen searching for the right careers and identities, and we are seasoned professionals looking to improve ourselves and expand our base of knowledge.

National is truly a rainbow of people. We have Asians, Africans, Polish, Hispanics, Russians, Europeans...and the list goes on. The challenge to learn from one another's cultural experiences gives us an educational dimension we would not otherwise be exposed to. We are trying hard to meet such a challenge as we move toward completing our degrees.

Sara Caruso smiles at the thought of starting her first year at NLU. Cedric Evans tries hard to resist. Kenya Williams and Jason Erb await Cindy Wolski's mystery drink. Jeffrey Rose reflects on life at the Bah'ai. Mariko Aoki, Veronica, Monica, Dolores Raya, Rose Marie and Rose Mae Sims, and Anglense Jones celebrate Halloween. Mariko Aoki & Norio Furukawa speak the same language. Michele Arrigo, Tracy Leyden, Karey Jones and Jen Lee "Liten" up.

Derailed, Deranged and Quite Strange

"Success doesn't happen by accident. It takes dedication, motivation and a lot of hard work. I realized this after being part of the NLU women's championship volleyball team. It's not easy being part of a team or even a member of large class. People working together, supporting each other, understanding one another or just sharing a smile can help another take that winning step, and I've found that combination for success at NLU."

Donna Castello

Everyone at National acts a bit deranged once in a while; some more than others. Stressful times are the best times to act quite strange at campus parties, because it is so therapeutic to derail occasionally. After a tough week of classes, it feels great to kick back, let your hair down and get a little crazy.

We are no different than anyone else when it comes to letting loose and having a good time. There's fun to be had. And when we allow ourselves to go in search of it, we inevitably find it. As serious as things may get at NLU, it's nice to know that the opportunity to show our lighter side is waiting on the other side of the tracks.

Chris Krawazyk mumbles "Chubby Bunnies." Diane Lerche, Erika Staiger, Susan Tabern & Alece Rockler flip out as Chris Scarbeck and Mike Kallison spot. Andy Andrews, Lisa Weinstein, Caroline Manke, Jeoffrey Rose & Barb Nuquist are to die for! Donna Castello—SANE? Nancy Nee, Cody McLaurine and Mike Kallison "See...Do...Say no evil." Wendy Escarcega and Anita Raymond are stuck in Florida. Cheryl Brewster and Diane Lerche promote peace.

Keeping Track of Each Other

Some say that college is where one meets his or her most valuable friends. They support each other socially and mentally as they get through each day. Keeping track of or in touch with friends, whether at National right now or beyond graduation, emphasizes that sense of caring.

We have formed friendships at NLU that will stand the test of time. Many of these connections will carry us into the "real world;" providing job opportunities and new social settings. Relationships such as these can be vital to meeting the challenges that come after we have earned our degrees.

Julie Huynh and Grace Hwang know what friendship is all about. Terrence Ross treats some friends to an NLU party. Penny Walker and Kenya Williams share a friendly smile. Jane Bryson remembers old NLU friends as she glances through a yearbook. Jodie Reeser, Eileen Landon, Betsie Egenes, Mara St. Aubin, Wendy Pryor, Jenny Donovan, Tammy Hines, & Michelle Cristal are ready to go. Jennifer Koransky & John Pierre know the warmth of friendship. Erica Christianson, Tony Galvan and Susan Hirsh enjoy each other's company.

"I think the NLU education program is the way to success."

Jane Bryson

Making Tracks of Memories

There are so many things that can trigger the most vivid memories. Special songs, certain places, familiar faces are just a few. Pictures can stimulate the greatest of memories—more so than any caption or date will. Remembering our days at NLU will be cherished as special moments that make us happy through giving, sharing and just being there.

We have spent the year making all kinds of memories. From the opening week of school and the many parties, to making music videos and standing in a blizzard of bucks, to Mardi Gras, Family Weekend, Candle & Rose and Commencement. In addition to traditional events, many of us have made a lot of memories on our own.

Wendy Escarcega and Katy Hull goofing around at Disney World. The Student Ambassadors are very supportive of each other. Nancy Nee and Andy Andrews do a little dirty dancing. Diane Lerche donates blood during Wellness Week. Fun Flicks, totally interactive videos, blew the roof off the Atrium. Michelle Kameneer and Jeoffrey Rose perform in "Embroidered Yarns." Angie Thompson, Christa Barkdoll and Kim Troutman know how valuable friendship is.

"Coming to National gave me a second chance at college. I appreciate the small classes and personal attention, because they keep me on my toes. I put everything I have into my education—even my blood!"

Diane Lerche

Sidetracked at Partytown

"There are many things that we could criticize at NLU, but the memories that you will leave with are the memories you make; none of which could be made without good friends."

Hector Solis

After days of classes, late nights doing homework, spending hours in the library and studying for exams, occasional sidetracking is a welcome relief!! Everyone has to let loose now and then. When it comes to a stop at Partytown, we like to have as much fun as any other college students!

Partying at NLU comes in many forms and fashions. We certainly aren't known as a party school, but it's not hard to find a party. You just have to be in the right place at the right time. Whether we're just hanging out at someone's "house," heading out for a night on the town or dancing 'til we drop at the campus party, we make the most of the event.

Chris Jahn and Lisa Peplow get ready to play another tune at a campus party. Michele Arrigo, Eric Wolfe, Laurie Stanley, Theresa Craeney and Korrie McCarry welcome in the New Year. James Gardner and Misha Starks get sidetracked together. Hector Solis is making memories. The women's volleyball team gets ready for a fiesta! Jen, Karey, Lori, Kelly, Jen, Christa, Michele and Theresa partake in some group therapy. Chris Powers, Laura Simpson and Sarah Thompson know a good non-alcoholic beer when they taste one.

Exciting Paths

Cross Tracks

People from all walks of life cross paths at National. Business people, parents, high school seniors, transfer students are a few of these. The combination of their personalities brings a high energy to the classroom. The excitement created is unmatched by many other institutions.

The challenge of upper division classes opens the door to active participation. The paths that cross in this academic environment make National more than just a place to go to school. It becomes an exciting adventure as students experience self-discovery.

Janell Sanders & Cody McLaurine are exhilarated. Donna Chmielewski squeezes excitement out of Sue Vallabdas. Erika Staiger, Michelle Kameneer & Margaret Schultz give a grand performance. Alece Rockler, Cheryl Brewster & Grace Hwang "just want to have fun." Sustaining this pose won Reece Anderson $25. Erika, Sue, Alece, Diane, Nancy and Chris get high on excitement. Audrey Crowder, Misha Starks, Kenya Williams and Penny Walker show their pearly whites.

"NLU has prepared me for the harsh realities of the world out there."

Reece Anderson

Brookfield-Milwaukee Center

Atlanta Academic Center

Views of National-Louis

Tampa, Florida

Heidelberg, Germany

Mclean, Virginia

St. Louis Academic Center

Lombard, Illinois

Chicago

Dr. Orley R. Herron, President

"National-Louis University must strive even harder to bring resolve to a world that needs our brightest and best efforts."

Dr. Herron

"What a great university to be a part of and know the best is yet ahead!"

Michael W. Louis
Vice Chairman of the Board of Trustees,
with Yearbook Editor
Helen A. Bendik

Carolyn R. Bair, M.A.
Vice President for Student Affairs

Kathryn E. Cody, B.A.
Executive Assistant to the President

A Brief Message from the President to the Class of 1992

I congratulate every one of you on your accomplishments at National-Louis University. As you leave the National community, you enter a new community -- whether it be academic, professional or family. Wherever you go, you represent the spirit of National-Louis University.

Know that you carry with you the gift of an education that symbolizes more than a century of helping others. Know that you are qualified to succeed at whatever you might take on in the years ahead.

Class of 1992, I salute you!

Orley R. Herron

David McCreery, M.A.
Vice President for University Advancement

Ines Milne, M.B.A.
Vice President for

Budget & Mgt Systems
Delbert D. Stoner, B.S.
Senior Vice President
for Finance

Not photographed:

Glenn Heck, Ph.D.
Senior Vice President
for Academic Affairs

Lon Randall, Ed.D.
Senior Vice President
for Administration

CROSS & SING

Faculty & Staff

Administrative Services staff members Bill Roberts and Vicki Eckhart provide plenty of support for Vice President for Finance Del Stoner. Here, Del and staff take a break from the number-crunching to share a smile with the camera.

Smiles Reflect Positive Attitudes

Purchasing and General Services staff members Jane Herman and Pam Porter. Professor of Education Dan Marshall always has time for a phonecall from a student. VP for Finance Ines Milne and VP for Student Affairs Carolyn Bair enjoy a drink with Associate VP for Student Affairs Mike Miller. Evanston Campus Dean Larry Lasko loves to flip burgers during Family Weekend.

Financial Aid Assistant Debra Morgan and Assistant Registrar Daisy Tow enjoy working in the same office together.

Residential Life Director Ravi Shankar has settled into his new office in Keck Hall.

Health Services staff members Nancy McLaughlin and Donna LeBlanc, RN, are always ready to help students feel their best.

Laura Ashby
Admissions
Chicago

Chris Clemmer
Human Services
Chicago

Carole Kabel
Library
Chicago

Curtis Rempson
Student Activities
Chicago

Adelaida Roque
Liberal Arts
Chicago

Maria-Denisa
Stanculescu
Student Affairs
Chicago

The library staff is always ready to help. (From L to R): Front row: Carol Moulden, Judith Pope, Kirsten Anderson, Sarah Goenne, Rose Novil. Back row: Kathryn Howell, Pat Gort, Ellen Bogosian, Jack Fritts, Rae Benjamin, Dave Hoogakker, Cynthia Lanphear, Lucy Goldberg, Susan Blumenfeld.

University Involvement = Community

Theatre Professor Rene Roy stands (in costume) with Holocaust survivor Mania Birnberg, "Angel in the Night" Playwright Joanna H. Kraus and Holocaust survivor Freida Saperstein. "Angel" was written about these two survivors. Security Guard Jim Renault issues parking permits and offers directions to various campus locations with a smile. Marcelo Sanz and Stan Weber of Computer Services stand in front of the Main Frame. Faculty Services Coordinator Phillip Kapela relaxes a bit after the grand commencement ceremonies.

Buildings & Grounds staff members are often found in the "caverns" of Sutherland. (From L to R): Front row: Eric Wolf, Cody McLaurine, Butch Sorenson. Back row: Director Tim Neubauer, Olaf Carlson, Dave Marken, Margaret McClimment.

Radiation Therapy Professor Judy Bastin goes over some final notes as she wraps up class.

Theatre Professor Amy Muchleip works on some multimedia materials in the media center as her son, Max, watches with curiosity.

Counselor Bob Kaufman spends a lot of time helping non-traditional students make the move into collegiate life.

Robin Woodsome heads the media department with his multiple talents and cheerful disposition.

Tracy Boyer's services make working with the media center super easy. Tracy's always ready with a helpful suggestion.

Professional Assistance Center for Education (PACE)

staff members:

Front row: Robert Harth, Nancy Kelly, Marsha Geller, Louise Baygood, Peggy Miller, Marlene Veibel, Barbara Bonier, Jayne Daniel. Back row: Jane Doyle, Joyce Hart, Delra Lerner-Schmidt, Linda Hanson, Mary Sinker, Marianne Sheridan.

Faculty/Staff Keep Students on Track

Reading & Language Dept:

Nancy McKearn, B.J. Wagner, Donna Ogle, Camielle Blackowicz, Judy Nystrom and Chuck Sentell enjoy the simplicity of children's literature.

Education professor William Nikola-Lisa is an artist as well as a great storyteller. Adjunct faculty member Eric Zickgraf returns student exams. Math professor George Litman explains an algebra problem.

Professor of Art Tina Weil is thrilled with the ceramic work she has just removed from the kiln in her art classroom.

Academic planner Bob Clark and Theatre Arts professor Patrick Holland go over the vocal music for the closing of commencement.

Career Counselor Karen Dolan is happy to help students in their job searches.

Cheryl Brewster
Student Activities
Evanston

Sally Daniels
C.A.D.
Evanston

Phyllis Geren
Computer Ed &
MAT program
Evanston

Ellie Olin
Music
Evanston

Linda Pennington
Academic Affairs
Evanston

Maurine Pyle
Enrollment Mgmt
Evanston

Theatre Professor Amy Muehleip, Resident Scenic Designer and Technical Director Kevin Wahl and Financial Aid Counselor Marla Greenspan regressed to "babyhood" when they performed a magical lip sync skit for the Family Weekend annual Variety Show.

Diverse Interests Bring Variety to Staff

Chicago Campus Dean Ron West looks over the latest placement figures with Career Counselor Cathy Robinson and Director of Career Development and Placement Connie Webster. PACE Residence Hall Director Sue Knapp gets some paperwork done in the friendly confines of the Atrium. Counselor Melanie Hayes, friend Ann, and Director of Student Activities Cheryl Brewster enjoy a White Sox game despite the cold weather. Mild-mannered Mike Bila, associate dean of field programs, becomes... "Supercook" for the Cubs game tailgate party on Baker Field.

Chicago Campus Student Affairs staff members Mary LaSalle and Curtis Rempson bundle up to watch the Sox beat the Expos on a chilly day at Comiskey Park.

Maggie Gill's support in the Office of Career Development and Placement keeps things going.

Chicago Campus Provost Burlean Burris purchases a piece of handmade jewelry from African American artisans during Black History Month.

Science Professor June Steinberg is always happy to go over test results when her students have questions.

Copy Center Lead Operator Eric Pierce, Mail Operations Supervisor William Trapp and Director of Purchasing Dave McCulloch 'talk numbers.'

Counselor Rolanda Burris has a blast even when she's grading placement tests.

Classes and performance events in Weinstein would hardly be possible without the skillful contributions of the performing arts and facility management staff. Standing outside the performing arts office in front of their promotions bulletin board are (From L to R): Director Karin Lewis, Carile Schnabl, Jon Cobb, Renee Higgins.

Dedication and Support Shine Through

Food Service staff members are always ready to help out with a campus event. (From L to R): Johnnie Shaw, Director Ann Ogle, Mark Fleischer, Rhonda Jefferson, Maria Escobar, Bennie Maldonado and Dave Aguirre are lending their cooking expertise and services for Family Weekend. Professor Ken Cantor answers a student's question about an upcoming assignment. Lombard Bookstore Manager Jim Cone unboxes books in preparation for the spring quarter rush. Custodian Billy Sans makes a copy of a campus room map for a student.

Science professor Art Hannah said to heck with a candid shot and got Natalia Papciak and Nancy Herbert to join him at his lecture stool.

Telecommunication Operator Betty J. Burress is always busy trafficking incoming calls.

English Professors Joyce Markel (dept. chair) and Lee Ramsey sit in their office and check over some writing samples submitted by spring quarter students.

Joan Curtin
C. A. D.
Lombard

James D. Gott
Acad. Computing
Lombard

Marla Greenspan
Financial Aid
Evanston

Roxanne Henkin
Education
Lombard

Rhunette Humrich Counseling
Lombard

Chris Murphy
Extended Sites
Evanston

Staff members Cathy Robinson, April Sakimoto, Ravi Shankar, Costas Spirou, Laura Ashby and Estervina Rodriguez meet regularly as the International Student Committee to discuss and track the needs of international students who have chosen to make National their collegiate home.

Friendly Faces In All Places

Philosophy Professor John Barbee goes over some lecture notes with his class. Human Services Professor Patrick McGrath shares some important points with his students as they prepare for their final exam. Women's Athletics coaches: Wendy Chisholm, Sue Gasperec, Director Patty McLean, Myra Minuskin. As secretary to the Lombard Campus Director, Judi Kroll is always ready to help out. Assoc. Dean for LAS Phyllis Neulist talks with a student outside her office.

In Memory of Sam Johnson, Sr.

On Monday, April 13, 1992, National-Louis University lost a very treasured colleague, friend and teacher. Sam Johnson spent 23 years as an athletic director at National. He was, perhaps, as much an institution here as is the college itself.

All those who knew him, even if only for a Quarter, could not help but be touched by his caring nature and his obvious love of life and people. He always approached things with his students in mind.

As a special honor to Sam's memory, a scholarship was created in his name to be given to the student who has exhibited outstanding achievements in the sports management program. This scholarship will become an annual award; one that befits a man who left a legacy at NLU.

ACTIVITIES

SING

CROSS

VITIES

Student Body Disappears as Spirits Take Over Atrium

Margaret Schultz "jests" with the Wicked Witch of the Inflatables as she takes a break from the Halloween festivities. Kirsten Anderson, Alece Rockler, Susan Tabern and an "army buddy" enjoy the spirit of friendship. Medusa has taken over the body of Erika Staiger. Trekkie Lisa Stock pals around with bunny Laura Simpson on "Planet NLU." Donna Chmielewski, Hector Solis and Kimberly Deets experience what it's like to live as the other sex for just a few hours.

Devil and angel? Hard rock star Andy Andrews sneaks up on "Sister Mary" Lisa Weinstein. Mariko Aoki can't "mask" her smile, and Julie Huynh gives a cheer when it comes to partying on Halloween. Dave Hoffheimer is but a "skeleton" of his former self, and Ginny Newhouse and Darcy Eisler still don't mind spending a moment with him. Erica Christianson clowns around with scholar Rose Marie Sims and Blues Brother Eric Salinger.

Serial killers, superstars, vampires and vamps were just a few of the unusual characters that appeared in the haunted confines of the Atrium on Friday, November 1. The annual Halloween party gave students the opportunity to let loose and NOT be themselves.

In the costume contest, Anisa Strausburg won First Place for her intriguing handmade mask. Erica Christianson clowned her way into Second Place and "Sister" Lisa Weinstein received Third Place for her holy appearance.

Ghosts and ghouls floated across the dance floor well past the bewitching hour.

Pumpkin Slashing Takes Guts in Hall

"Mr. Diversity" carves out a niche in our NLU community by showing one of his many sides. Three North "slashers," Jennifer Shapiro, Barb Lowth, Judy Holly, Laura Simpson, Camille Jones, Donna Chmielewski, Pharie Greer and Molly O'Hara ask Ernie how to get to Sesame Street. Mex-Afro Jack waits for his lantern to be lit before the judges begin their deliberations. Jeff Rose and Norio Furukawa have torturous plans for their pumpkin head as they make yet another "wound" in its flesh.

A diverse group encircles a diverse guy. Caren Herben, Sandy Walizadehe, Grace Hwang, Helen Bendik, Mariko Aoki, Julie Huynh, Janell Sanders, Nancy Nee and Maria Aiello. How much slashing and torturing can one jack o'lantern take? Jesse Green, Cindy Wolski, Tony Galvan, Terrence Ross and Hector Solis are proud to display the beginnings of their Mex-Afro pumpkin. Ernie o'lantern is ready to play. Claudia Carter and Erika Staiger proudly stand behind their unit's winning pumpkin.

Baker residence hall's annual pumpkin carving contest brought out the spirit of competition between units. It also brought out the spirit of the Halloween season among residents. Pumpkin carving seemed to have a timeless attraction, as unit members joined together to plan for the most creative jack o'lantern.

Baker Hall's main lobby was packed with pumpkins and pumpkin carvers. The room had that familiar smell of "pumpkin guts" as the scooping and carving began. Each unit came prepared with special plans, props and decorations in hopes of capturing the first place cash prize.

Night of Comedy Challenges Students to Hold the Smiles

The "We Can Make You Laugh" game show comedians got Shelia Michael to break into a smile during her try for $25 cash. The atrium was set up in a comedy club style so that everyone who attended was able to have a good view of the show. Jannessa Davis does her best to keep from laughing in her quest for that elusive $25 prize. She's on the verge of the grin that does her in. One of the comedians really "fired up" the audience when he broke out the fire sticks and performed all sorts of daring moves.

Even Bert and his over-sized buddy Ernie couldn't bring a smile to Reece Anderson's face, as he gives it his best college try. But, as Reece showed us, the $25 in cash sure made it easy for him to flash those pearly whites! Cody McLaurine isn't exactly jumping for joy as he tries to mimic the athletic feats of one of the comedians. Cedric Evans gives into laughter and gives up 25 bucks. Student Judges Caroline Manke, Erika Staiger and Nancy Nee are given their instructions as they prepare to let the laughing games begin.

The "We Can Make You Laugh" game show came to the Evanston campus on Thursday, October 31. A team of three comedians first treated to audience to a fabulous show of comedy and juggling.

The mood became more serious (NOT!) when the call went out for game show participants. The names of all who attended were placed in a box. Many hoped for the chance to win $25 cash! All they had to do was keep a straight face for three minutes!

This 3-minute feat proved to be impossible for all but one NLU student. Reece Anderson not only remained stone-faced, he had the comedians laughing at him.

Soaring Hearts Take Flight at Annual Valentine Dance

Audrey Smith, Vivian Bowers, Kim Whitting, Claudia Carter, Kevin Dorsey and Terrance Ross take a break from dancing to strut their "sweetheart" stuff for the camera. Sandy Walizadehe, Julie Huynh and Jen have that special Valentine's Day something that brings in the men: Sean, Andy, Peter, Dennis and Chucky. Christine Jahn and her special Valentine, Brian, "engage" in a loving pose. Samantha Brooks and Jon Hoffheimer find time to relax during an evening of dancing.

Cupid has shot one of his arrows at Lauren Hahn as she gives her guy a big squeeze. Loyola friends Mary Jo and Sheryl are obviously having a great time with Helen Bendik as they kick up their heels to a hot tune. Reece Anderson and his Valentine, Marie, enjoy each other's company as they share a slow dance. Donna Castello burns up the dance floor with new friend Luke, an Alpha Sigma Phi from Loyola. Angie Cappage and Yasmeena Holland are "in line" for another go 'round of "The Slide."

On Friday evening, February 14, the Atrium was transformed into a sweetheart's paradise. Well over 100 students, dressed in their V-Day best, danced to music and music videos provided by Entertainment Concepts. This was the first year that a 12ft. x 12ft. music video screen was part of the dance party, and it was a definite hit with the crowd.

Lauren Hahn won the annual door prize of a dinner for two at The 95th in downtown Chicago. Private limousine service was also provided to and from the restaurant. Lauren was thrilled. She said, "I've never won anything before!"

African-American Student Groups Celebrate History

A group of Chicago campus students and staff enjoy special entertainment in celebration of Black History Month. "Light" Henry Huff plays a special style of harp music during Black History Month at the Chicago campus. Students were given a visual treat, when African-American artisans brought their wares to campus. Artisan Julia Fair was one of many vendors who was happy to display her creations during the month-long celebration. Dee Alexander performs a song with accompaniment from harpist Henry Huff in the 5th Floor lounge of the Chicago campus. Terrance Ross, president of Evanston's The African Decendents In America (TADIA) Club introduces a group of performers in Carlson Auditorium. Poet and author Mark Hall had a table set up on the Chicago campus that enabled him to share his ethnic poetry and writings with students. Evanston campus students were treated to a fabulous dance program that featured cultural dances from Africa. The Darlene Black-Burn dance troupe was a part of Chicago's Black History Month celebration.

National-Louis is proud to have a student population rich in diversity. African-American students were especially active during the month of February-- the month that has been nationally designated as Black History Month.

Students of all ethnicities were culturally enriched by the many activities sponsored by student groups on both the Evanston and Chicago campuses. They were treated to colorful and informative displays, provocative speakers, magnificent artistry and wonderful entertainment. A pride in heritage made it a month of understanding and enjoyment.

Fourth Annual "Sweet Spell of Success" Raises $70,000

The fourth annual "Sweet Spell of Success" celebrity spelling bee pitted business and education leaders against popular journalists and professional athletes, but the real winners were needy students who benefit from the National-Louis University scholarship fund. The event was held at Chicago's Hotel Nikko, with retired Chicago Bear Gary Fencik as master of ceremonies.

Leonard Dominquez, Deputy Mayor of Education for the city of Chicago finds time to chat with Robert C. Kehm, a partner in the firm of Arthur Anderson and Co. Channel 7 News Anchor Frank Mathie teams up with NLU Board of Trustees member Peter Rusin as they check their spelling. Popular advice columnist Ann Landers and NLU President Orley Herron work together in the spelling bee. Evanston Student Program Board Pres. Ginny Newhouse compares notes with Bears Head Coach Mike Ditka.

Evanston Atrium Provided A Great Place for Dancing

Students enjoyed many-a-party in the Atrium. Themes ranged from "Rock the Ages" to a music video dance party. Whatever the occasion, a good time was had by all.

Katy Hull and Dave Hoffheimer were regulars on the dance floor. They especially liked the slow dances.

Audrey Smith and Kalani Koko found campus parties to be a great way to meet new friends. Steve Pinex and Donna Chmielewski enjoy getting down to the great dance music. For the "Rock the Ages" dance David Knezz shaved his beard in a 60s artiste design and enjoyed a groovy dance with Jeanne Kuna. Darcy Eisler and Helen Bendik enjoy a night of dancing with their men.

Sonya Watkins, Tuesday Warner, Anita Warner and Delia Martin find campus parties give them time to get together.

Dinner/Dance Celebrates Chicago Tri-Campus Unity

Sandy Walizdehe and Laura Long enjoy the music of "The Saxophones" and the harmony of friendship.

Alece Rockler, Davina Berger, Donna Castello, Erika Staiger, Christine Jahn, Becky Meinke, Nancy Nee and Diane Lerche take a break between dinner and dancing for a group photo.

Korrie McCarry is uplifted by the spirit of the evening. Staff members Kevin Wall, Marla Greenspan, Amy Muehleip and husband Marc, Mike Kenny, Cheryl Brewster and Mike Bila enjoy the Mardi Gras celebration.

Davina Berger enjoys the fabulous music and a dance with John.

Kalani Koko and her date, Andy, masquerade in true Mardi Gras style as they hide behind the table favors provided by the Tri-Campus Event Committee. Sue Knapp, Jennifer Lee, Laurie Stanley and Korrie McCarry toast to a fun-filled evening and the company of good friends. Jenny Mottola, Kaliko Kauhane, Wendy Pryor and Shelby Lawrence share their best smiles to reflect the joyful evening.

MARDI

GRAS

1992

Mardi Gras, NLU's Tri-Campus Dinner Dance, was held on Friday, February 28. The event was a celebration of unity, as nearly 150 Chicago, Lombard and Evanston students, faculty and staff gathered at the Drury Lane, Oakbrook Terrace.

The opening cocktail hour provided an opportunity to mingle while faculty & staff members Kevin Wahl, Marla Greenspan and Amy Muehleip supplied "cocktail music." After a wonderful dinner, "The Saxophones," played fabulous dance music, giving everyone the chance to show off their fancy footwork and fancy attire.

Annual Lip Sync Contest Still Drawing Huge Crowds

Kelly O'Regan lip syncs her way to 2nd place with a hard rock performance that featured a live snake. Staffers Rolanda Burris & Cheryl Brewster wait to hear about fellow staffer Marla Greenspan's special ring in their version of "The Leader of the Pack." Hector Solis and Kim Deets reminisce about "Summer Lovin'." Molly O'Hara, Maria Lopez and Karen Fancel lip sync back-up for Kim Deets as she swoons over her summer romance. The Student Programming Board got the crowd out of their seats when they lip synced "Let's Talk About Sex."

Faculty and staff judges Bif Fieldman, George Gonsalvez and Forrest Inslee are amazed by rocker Kelly O'Regan. Erika Staiger and Nancy Nee remember when rock was young as they lip sync Elton John's "Crocodile Rock." Resident Assistant Korrie McCarry tells Hall Director Jason Erb to "Stop in the Name of Love" as his character takes care of business with yet another lover, played by Resident Assistant Cindy Wolski. Adriene Strickland, a friend of an NLU student, managed to find her way into the lip sync spotlight to perform a song by Mariah Carey.

The annual lip sync contest continued to be one of the biggest events of the year.

Thirteen acts put their lips to the test in an effort to capture the $100 first place prize.

The atrium was packed with people eager to cheer for their favorite "stars." Performances ranged from songs by Mariah Carey and Karen White to old favorites by the Supremes and Elton John. Songs from the musicals Grease and The Wizard of Oz, and a medley of TV tunes were also staged.

Kevin Dorsey captured first place, Kelly O'Regan won the $50 second place prize, and Laura Michel & Tammy Goldman took third place and $25.

Picnicking and Partying With Family and Friends

Grey skies didn't keep Erika Staiger, Caren Herbin, Jen Marriott, President Herron, Marla Greenspan, Chris Scarbeck, Larry Lasko and Mrs. Castello from enjoying a good ol' fashioned BBQ. Cindy Wolski and Barb Lowth doing the bench dance again! Laurie, Carrie, Jen, Nancy, Michelle, Donna, Katy, Helen, Chris, Caroline, Caren and Barb sing "That's What Friends are For" during Karaoke night. Erika Staiger, Michelle Kamenear, Janell Sanders, Laura Michels, Jennifer Capitani and Jennifer Marriott became The Brady Kids during their musical number in the annual variety show. Chris Ptack showed us all that he could be both a fool and a juggler during his performance with Lester. Laurie Stanley, Cindy Wolski and Ravi Shankar were all members of the "Pat persuasion" in the Residence Hall Staff's variety show skit. Evanston Campus Dean Larry Lasko is Goldilocks (and the 3 bears) during his V-show act. Everyone enjoyed the picnic fare during the final event of Family Weekend. Andy Andrews needs a lot of support as he tries to get around on a "baby" bicycle.

Everyone who joined in on the Family Weekend festivities had a great time! The weekend opened with the traditional Champagne Kick-off honoring the seniors. The entire crowd was then entertained by physical comedian Lester. Lester got many members of the audience involved in juggling, balloon-tying and stage vignets. The audience never stopped laughing. The evening finished up with a dance.

Saturday's schedule included a waffle bar brunch, the annual Variety Show, and the awards banquet. Saturday was topped off with a Karaoke night and dance party. Sunday offered a BBQ as the final event.

Families Made Weekend Of Festivities Worth the Effort

Alece Rockler and her family enjoy the food and fun only found at the BBQ picnic. Donna Castello and dad share lots of laughs together during the opening night comedy act. The Awards Banquet holds a greater meaning when a student can share the event with those closest to her. Helen Bendik enjoys the Awards Banquet with her honey, Ken, and her mom. Dawn Debruhl is happy to be attending the Awards Banquet with her very own fan club there to applaud her. She sits with her mom, brother and boyfriend. The family of "Angel in the Night" poses for picture backstage during their Family Weekend performance. Clockwise from top: Jeffrey Rose, Erika Staiger, Michelle Kamenear, Mandy Reiff and Jessica Middlebrook. Janell Sanders stops with Mom and Grandma to smile for the camera. Chris Jahn is part of a great family portrait. Mom and Dad are seated, and fiancé Brian stands next to her. Katy Hull is all smiles as she enjoys the banquet with her mom and grandpa. Tammy Fischer is proud to have her mom, dad and two sisters joining her for a great weekend of activities.

The Family Weekend Committee chose the theme "Imagine" for this year's weekend. The committee, made up of Evanston Campus students and staff, wanted to reach and entice as many families as possible to join in the festivities. "Imagine" allowed for a broad approach to creative activities, promotions and decorations. With a little imagination, anything was possible.

"Family" was obviously the focus of the annual weekend event, and the campus was filled with the hum of families joining together to celebrate being part of the National-Louis family.

Awards Banquet Recognizes Outstanding Student Skills

Winners of the Student Senate Sutherland Award: (From L to R): Row 1 - Erika Staiger, Davina Berger, Caren Herbin. Row 2 - Terrance Ross, Caroline Manke, Chris Jahn, Andy Andrews (not pictured - Grace Hwang). Barbara Ferguson shares a big smile after winning the Eva Grace Long scholarship. Student Affairs Medals went to (From L to R): Row 1 - Dolores Raya, Caren Herbin, Helen Bendik. Row 2 - Angelense Jones, Terrance Ross, Davina Berger, Alece Rockler (not pictured - Donna Castello). Vice President for Student Affairs Carolyn Bair presents

the NAIA District 20 Player of the Year Award to softball player Laurie Stanley. May Court Seniors are Laurie Stanley, Cindy Wolski, Andy Andrews, Katy Hull, Caroline Manke, Jodie Reeser, Barb Lowth (not pictured - Sonya Watkins). Counselor Rolanda Burris received the Student Senate K. Richard Johnson Award. Volleyball team award winners with Coach Sue Gasperec: Donna Castello, Katy Hull, Tammy Fischer, Jamesetta Holloway, Dawn Debruhl. Scholarship winners Jamesetta Holloway, Rachel Crouch and Ericka Staiger.

Other Student Award Recipients: Scholarships: Yulira Encina, Rebecca Meinke. Samuel Johnson Award: Vlayinka Fatuga. Student Humanitarian Award: Dolores Raya and Angelese Jones. Faculty/Staff Rookies of the Year: Cheryl Brewster and Mike Billa. Drama Awards: Chris Kravczyk, Laura Michel, Michelle Kameneck. Who's Who Among Students ... : Kim Alamar, Nancy Babel, Helen Bendik, Dorothy Burton, Martha Casillas, Rebekah Catlett, David Decker, Arnold Doel, Darcy Eisler, Esmarie Elliott, Rachel Gonzalez, Sandra Gorskey, Carolyn Grantham, Nina Henry, Caren Herbin, David Knezz, Barb Lowth, Despina Massouras, Caroline Manke, Korrie McCarry, Laura Michel, Mary Pate, Chris Ptack, Jodie Recser, Chris Scarbeck, Linda Selweikhofer, Susan Schulze, Laurie Stanley, Dena Venziano, Sonya Watkins, Lisa Weinstein, Deborah White, Cindy Wolski.

PACE Students Remember Good Times at Annual Tea

Linda Hanson spends some time talking to friends and students during the annual PACE year-end Tea and reception. Students, staff and special guests enjoyed a fabulous spread of homemade goodies before the special ceremony. Diane, Nicholas Fabke, Ira Mitchell, Kari Kastkee and Samantha Brooks wait for their moments at the microphone, while Natalie Curtis places her "flower" in the "garden." Brad Arling, Alyssa Rosen, Shelby Lawrence, Jenny Mottola, Megan Carnes and "Jon-boy" line up to share what they liked most about their PACE working experience.

Brian Hoffsted and Jenny Donovan enjoy the opportunity to talk with friends and teachers at the annual Tea held in the Atrium. Jane Doyle looks over her notes as she prepares to introduce program participants. Wendy Pryor thinks about her chance to tell the audience about the great experiences she's had. Everyone connected with the PACE Program enjoys the year-end celebration. Wendy Pryor and Eileen Landon exchange memories of the year's events while sampling the delicious food.

The Atrium provided a wonderful setting for the Professional Assistance Center for Education's (PACE) annual spring Tea. There was a positive charge in the atmosphere, a beautiful spread of food on the table, a lot of smiling faces and a sense of pride in jobs well done.

The highlight of the afternoon was hearing about job experiences from each of the PACE students. All carried flowers with their most memorable moments written on them. They each shared those moments and proceeded to "plant" the flowers in a "garden." A mutual admiration between students and teachers was evident.

America's Favorite Pastime Brings NLU to the Ballparks

Julietta Alvarez enjoys her day at the Sox game and isn't shy in front of the camera either! Ricardo Marroquin proudly displays the Chicago White Sox cap of old as he cheers on the good guys in black. Faculty, staff, students and friends enjoyed the game despite the very chilly temperatures. Evanston and Field students make their way from campus to the Linden El Station for a ride to Wrigley Field. Audrey Smith, Terrance Ross, Rose Marie Sims and Tammy Fischer ride the rails with smiles. The Comiskey Park score board was a fabulous sight to see as it towered above everyone in the ballpark! The crowd from National-Louis had some great seats just behind right field. They were even better when the sun managed to peek through the clouds. The new Comiskey Park not only had a big score board and screen to introduce each player at bat, but additional signs also helped rev up the crowd. Wrigley Field had its usual warm and homey feel, it's just too bad the weather didn't offer its own warmth. NLU fans did their best to find warmth in each others smiles.

Baseball in the Windy City makes as much of a statement about Chicago as its skyline. Though the rivalry of the Northsiders and the Southsiders continues, many NLU staff and students went to see both the Cubs and White Sox play.

An unusually cold Spring made many feel as if they should have been at a Bears game. Game-goers sat in Wrigley Field at the end of April and went to Comiskey Park at the end of May. Neither date provided an opportunity for a fabulous tan, but good food helped. Cubs fans had a tailgate party on Baker Field, and Sox fans were treated to an all-u-can-eat/drink lunch at the park.

Candle & Rose Celebrates Seniors, Legacies, Memories

Liberal Arts Seniors Chris Ptack and Caroline Manke share their thoughts about their years at NLU. Laurie Stanley and Cindy Wolski take the seniors down Memory Lane with a special slide show that highlighted many moments to remember over the past four years. Senior Class President Andy Andrews is happy to have Mom and sisters here for the evening. Jen Lee, Ava Reynolds and Amy Stahl toast to friendship and their final days at National. Education Seniors Caren Herbin and Barb Lowth go through their over-sized thank-you list as they look back over their four years here. Allied Health Senior Speaker Beth Znaniecki shares a friendly hug with her Candle and Rose partner Nancy Nee. Human Services Senior Jodie Reeser has many fond memories and accolades to share about her experiences at NLU. Erika Staiger passed the Student Body President gavel to herself and looks forward to a second year in office. Thirty seniors participated in the ceremony. Medical Technology Senior Speaker Sonya Watkins and her partner Vivian Bowers are ready to pass the candle & rose.

Thirty seniors invited 30 underclassmen to join them in the ceremonial passing of the candle and the rose. In the ceremony, each senior passes a candle to an underclassman as a symbol of the lamp of learning and as a way to ask them to continue the traditions at NLU. Each underclassman then hands a senior a rose as a symbol of his/her growth and blossoming during their time at National.

The Evanston ceremony was held on Friday, June 12, and featured a Memory Lane slide show, words of remembrances and wisdom from seniors in each program, and the Senior Class President Farewell.

Education Club Sponsors Rose and Candle Ceremony

Rene Williams passes on the lamp of learning to Regina Field as they exchange warm smiles of friendship. Secretary for the 1992-93 Education Club, Marie Johnson, officiates over the Rose and Candle Ceremony. Annette Cueves happily accepts a rose from Milagros Vazzana. Lisa Jackson and Sandra Boyer exchange a rose and a candle in a symbolic gesture of growth and learning. Janice Robinson receives a candle, and the responsibility to keep its light burning at National, from Helen Gilmore. Linda Thomas and Linda Killigsworth enjoy being part of the passing of the rose and candle. Katie Wash gets a big, keep-the-fire-burning hug from Carolyn Smith. Education Club President Jannette Hardman accepts a rose from David Kreger and passes him a candle. Kathy Radice, of the Early Childhood Education Program, shares a few words of wisdom with the participants. After accepting her rose, Kim Alamar passes her candle to Education Club VP Nicole Mallette. Cora Suddoth passes her candle to Sharon Linson before giving her Senior Class Farewell speech.

The Education Club sponsored its Third Annual Rose and Candle Ceremony at the Chicago Campus on Friday, June 5. The evening began with an introduction by the club president, Jannette Hardman. Students then heard from Kathy Radice, of the Early Childhood Education program and NLU alumna Mona Johnson.

Once the exchanges of roses and candles was completed, seniors Rachel Gonzalez and Cora Suddoth shared their memories of National in their Senior Farewells. Past Education Club officers were then recognized, and Pat Hulsebosch, of the Elem. Ed. Program, closed the event.

ATHLETICS

Volleyball Team Establishes New School Records

With an impressive 37-10 record, the women's volleyball team set a new school record for victories in a season as well as a record for most consecutive victories -- 16. The Eagles earned NLU's first-ever District 20 crown with a 5-game upset over nationally-ranked and top-seeded College of St. Francis. The team was defeated in Bi-District play by Northwestern College (IA), falling one victory short of a trip to the NAIA Nationals.

Head Coach Sue Gasparec was named District 20 Coach of the Year and Chicagoland Collegiate Athletic Conference (CCAC) Coach of the Year. Coach Gasparec also posted her 100th NLU victory when the Eagles defeated Sagamon State on November 13. Four players were named to the All-District and All-Conference teams: Seniors Katy Hull and Dawn DeBruhl, sophomore Jamesetta Holloway and freshman Wendy Escarcega.

Tammy Fischer bumps the ball into position for a great set and slam.

Jamesetta Holloway attacks the ball at the net in an effort to score another point for the Eagles.

Eagle Volleyball District 20 Champions (From L to R): Front Row - Karen Francel, Wendy Escarcega, Jamesetta Holloway, Jennifer Shapiro, Donna Castello. Back Row - Anita Raymond, Annessa Jost, Julie Satkiewicz, Katy Hull, Dawn DeBruhl, Tammy Fischer, Head Coach Sue Gaspares.

Katy Hull goes down low to get the volleyball up into position for a teammate to set for a point.

New School Records

TEAM

Most Victories in a Season: 37
 Most Kills in a Season: 1,897
 Most Serving Aces in a Season: 352
 Most Digs in a Season: 2,334
 Most Consecutive Victories in a Season: 16

INDIVIDUAL

Katy Hull: Most Kills in a Season - 489
 Julie Satkiewicz: Most Kills, Career - 831
 Most Serving Aces in a Match - 7
 Most Serving Aces in a Season - 89
 Most Serving Aces, Career - 230
 Most Digs in a Career - 953
 Wendy Escarcega: Most Digs, Season - 509
 Overall Record: 37 - 10
 CCAC Record: 6 - 1

Dawn DeBruhl goes up to the net for another slam into the opponent's side of the court.

Conference Champs for Fifth Time in Six Years

The men's soccer team came out victorious in its quest for the Chicagoland Collegiate Athletic Conference (CCAC) championship title. In a close game with rival Rosary College, the Eagles wrapped up the conference season with an exciting 1-0 win. This victory not only helped them clinch the CCAC title, but it capped off an undefeated conference season.

Among the many individual recognitions received, senior Juan Rodriguez became the first NLU soccer player to be selected to participate in the prestigious senior soccer bowl. The all-star game featured top seniors chosen from among the 247 NAIA institutions. Soccer coaches from across the country participated in the selection process. Rodriguez was a defender on the West team.

Third-year player Jorge Medrano runs onto the field after putting the ball into play.

Wilson Cisneros and Coach Manny Tovar keep track of game statistics and make notes for future practice sessions. (Below) Jorge Garcia watches the game as he gets ready to take the field.

The Eagles varsity soccer team lines up on the field as it prepares to begin another game.

Varsity team & conference champs (From L to R): Front Row - Hidilberto Trejo, Jose Boltorquez, Guillermo Vidaurre, Ventura Aguilar, Jorge Garcia, Guillermo Espejo, Jorge Bahena, Edwin Bohorquez. Back Row - Robert Baczewski, Ricardo Alcala, Juan Rodriguez, Ernest Cadet, Paul Nano, Razouk Merza, Zeid Shara, Frank Velazquez.

Junior Varsity team (From L to R): Front Row - Florencio Garcia, Juan Garcia, Horacio Zavala, Pablo Ochoa, Orhan Senger, Ricardo Ramirez, Guillermo Vidaurre, Omar Youhanna, Jorge Villasenor. Back Row - Coach Manny Tovar, William Navas, Jose Bahena, Wilson Cisneros, Jose Flores, Paul Nano, Jesus Garcia.

Head Coach
Victor
Stanculescu

Team Awards and Stats

All-Conference Team:

Jose W. Bahorquez -
CCAC Player of the Year

Guillermo Espejo

Razouk Merza

Juan Rodriguez

Frank Velazquez

All-District Team:

Jose W. Bohorquez

Guillermo Espejo

Zeid Shara

Frank Velazquez

All-American Team:

Guillermo Espejo

Overall Record: 11 - 6 - 5

CCAC Record: 6 - 0

Women's Basketball Team Gets a New Head Coach

First-year Head Coach Wendy Chisholm spends her first season building team skills. In an awards presentation at the end of the year Coach Chisholm commented on each of her team member's strengths both on and off the court. She spoke of a team spirit that will carry them into next year's season.

The Eagles played the final game of the season on February 25. NLU fell to host College of St. Francis by a score of 63-51. The squad posted a 6-21 overall record, while going 2-8 in conference play.

Two women were named to the NAIA All-District 20 Team: Junior guard Angela Coppage, who is a second-year nominee, and junior center Jannessa Davis. Davis was fifth in the nation in rebounding, with a 12.95 per game average.

Shantel Shelby does her best to block an opponent's shot at the basket.

Women's Head Basketball Coach Wendy Chisholm talks strategy in her timeout instruction.

Eagles Women's Basketball Team (From L to R): Front Row - Dinah Simpson, Minika Scott, Maria Lopez, Angie Thompson. Back Row - Asst. Coach Greg Chisholm, Jannessa Davis, Shantel Shelby, Tammy Doby, Angela Coppage, Kyla Murphy, Head Coach Wendy Chisholm.

Dinah Simpson takes the ball and makes a break for the Eagle half of the court in a thrilling overtime game against Trinity

Team Awards and Stats

NAIA All-District 20 Team:

Angela Coppage

Jannessa Davis

All-Conference Team:

Jannessa Davis

Hustle Award: Minika Scott

Most Valuable Player: Jannessa Davis

Most Improved Player: Tamala Doby

Coach's Award: Jannessa Davis

Overall Record: 6 - 21

CCAC Record: 2 - 8

Minika Scott keeps her opponent from getting a pass to a teammate under the net.

Outstanding Athletes Give Team Competitive Edge

Eagles Softball saw a winning season culminate in an abundance of individual awards for the women athletes. The Eagles finished the year with a record of 30 wins and 17 losses.

The team was top-seeded entering into the NAIA District 20 Tournament. But the Eagles lost the championship game to rival and second seed St. Francis in the final game of the six-team double-elimination district tourney.

Local and National honors were in line for several players as well as for Head Coach Myra Minuskin, who received the District 20 Softball Coach of the Year Award.

Notable player recognitions included a second-year selection to the NAIA All-America Scholar-Athlete Team for senior Laurie Stanley. Senior Karey Jones was also selected for this very prestigious honor. Both young women were Elem Ed majors.

Junior pitcher Christa Barkdoll gets into her windup to put another fast one over the plate.

Team slugger Joan Russo, who lead the Eagles with a .404 batting average, completes one of the seven triples she had on the year with a picture-perfect slide.

Eagles Women's Softball Team (From L to R): Front Row - Kerri Beeman, Jill Ziarnik, Tracy Leyden, Nicole Boldog. Back Row - Karey Jones, Jen Leahy, Michele Arrigo, Christa Barkdoll, Lisa Weber, Joan Russo, Laurie Stanley, Lori Dresser, Head Coach Myra Minuskin.

Senior Laurie Stanley clinches her teeth and puts everything she has into her swing, but somehow the ball still manages to get past her.

NAIA All-American:
Laurie Stanley (1st team)
Joan Russo (2nd team)
NAIA All-American Scholar-Athletes:

Laurie Stanley & Karey Jones
NAIA All-District 20 Team:
Laurie Stanley (Player of the Year),
Joan Russo, Christa Barkdoll
All-Conference Team:
Tracy Leyden (Player of the Year),
Laurie Stanley, Christa Barkdoll,
Karey Jones, Jill Ziarnik

Hustle Award & Coach's Award:
Tracy Leyden
Most Valuable Player: Laurie Stanley
Most Improved Player: Jill Ziarnik
Gold Glove Award: Karey Jones
Overall Record: 30-17 CCAC
Record: 6-2

Kerri Beeman settles into her stance as she waits to hit the next pitch out of the park.

CROSSING Organizations

Evanston Student Senate Works for Positive Changes

Student Senators rehearse for their skit in the annual Variety Show. They had a great time doing a parody of the popular TV show "Beverly Hills 90210." Their version? "National-Louis 60201."

Baker Residence Hall Senator Molly O'Hara waits in line, with a smile, to register for Spring Quarter classes.

Senator-at-Large Chris Ptack has a friendly kiss for Student Body President Erika Staiger.

Student Senate worked hard to represent the needs of Evanston students. Some key focus areas were "honors" recognition printed on the diploma, communication through a senate newsletter, and coordination of a variety of activities. Senate members (From L to R): Davina Berger, Andy Andrews, Erika Staiger, Caroline Manke, Chris Jahn, Terrance Ross, Grace Hwang, Chris Ptack, Nancy Nee, Kevin Dorsey. (Not pictured): Ginny Newhouse and Molly O'Hara.

Student Programming Board Keeps Evanston Students Busy

Programming Board member Rosa Mae Sims makes sure all the snacks are available during the Valentine's Day dance.

Family Weekend Committee got a lot of support from Programming Board members who participated in the planning. Dolores Raya, Angelense Jones & Rose Marie Sims sing "Imagine" for the V-show.

The Programming Board sponsored a wide variety of activities throughout the year. Besides many dances, the members organized pumpkin carving, "Fun Flicks," comedy nights, an egg hunt, and midnight ice skating.

Clowning around as they take a break from their many graceful moments on the ice at the Skatium in Skokie are: Susan Tabern, Rob Glasberg, Susan Hirsh and Alece Rockler.

Student Programming Board President Ginny Newhouse carves a pumkin for Halloween.

Small But Mighty Yearbook Staff Makes Copy a Priority

Once the theme of the book was decided upon, they tackled the task of creating headlines and copy for the opening section. The board was filled with possibilities...They were on "the right track."

Seasoned staff member Darcy Eisler was happy to volunteer her time to help put together a good book for her senior year.

Advisor Cheryl Brewster sits, in what became her daily perch, and types at "the Mac."

In her third year on staff, second as editor-in-chief, Helen Bendik was determined to make this book a great memento for any NLU student who wanted a keepsake of their 1991-92 year at National. Literally hundreds of volunteer hours went into the production of the book. Being a senior, Helen felt working on this book was well worth the effort.

During the Halloween season, Evanston students were treated to a creepy movie day in Goodman Lounge.

Commuter Association Works to Establish Some Traditions

Many students, like Molly O'Hara (at right), waited in line to have their future examined by Numerologist Patrice, during Commuter Association's Halloween activities.

A clothing drive was just one of many service-oriented events sponsored by the Commuter Association. They also provided finals week munchies each quarter, an annual ice cream social, a comedy movie day and an end-of-the-year commuter buffet. Their goal was to offer afternoon functions that commuter students would be more able to participate in.

Commuter Assoc. President Davina Berger enjoys spending time with friends in the Atrium.

Student Clubs Provide More Opportunities to Meet People

Chicago Campus Accounting Club members Martha Casillas and Mike Avramovich and advisor Dr. Lourdes Vanasco enjoy the chance to network with other students interested in accounting issues.

The Living Cultures Club established itself on the Evanston campus in the Spring Quarter. Their first activity was designing and painting a mural on the main floor lounge in Baker Hall. Members are (From L to R): Tony Galvan, Julie Huyhn, Erica Christianson, Dolores Raya. Back row: Rosa Mae Sims, Advisor Jason Erb, Rose Marie Sims. (Not pictured): Hector Solis.

Evanston Campus Good Earth Society had a very active Fall Quarter. In addition to selling the reusable insulated mugs, they also produced a newsletter and brought a speaker to campus from the Ill. Dept. of Conservation. Above, Society President Heather Caldwell talks with the Dept.'s representative.

Sigma Gamma Rho, Sorority Inc. had a year full of activities. They sponsored several parties, a "Sigma Week" and a Health Forum on nutrition. They also participated in their National's regional conference held in Cleveland, Ohio. Members are (From L to R): Seated: Renee Higgins and Amy Stahl. Standing: Karen Buford, Claudia Carter, Jaunita Williams, Shanta Payton.

In the production of "The Children's Hour," Michelle Kamenear, as Mary Tilford, tells her mother, played by Barbara Elam, the lie that ruins the lives of her two teachers

Drama Club Members and Theatre Students Entertain

(Clockwise from left): Jon Cobb, Celeste Bazan, Chris Krawaczyk and Deborah White bring to life a scene of actors in their own little worlds during the production of the one-act play, "Action."

One of this year's more prominent productions was "Embroidered Yarns." The cast performed as a touring company during the entire Winter Quarter, playing to many elementary and middle school audiences in Illinois and Wisconsin. Above: Margaret Schultz, Erika Staiger and Michelle Kamenear explain the yarn-tellin' truths to Jeffrey Rose.

In "The Children's Hour" Michelle Kamenear, as Mary, forces Rosalie, played by Mandy Reiff, to be her "vassal" by doing and saying whatever she tells her.

Extended Sites and Academic Centers

Traditionally, college education has been available to only those who had the time and money to spend several years away from work, usually away from home, in order to pursue their degree. NLU has pioneered the development of a higher education experience that offers convenient class locations, practical application of coursework, credit for life-experience, and class work geared to adults returning to college. Students who earn their bachelor or masters degrees through these programs meet in groups or clusters at hundreds of extended-site locations that surround Chicagoland as well as each NLU Academic Center. Over many months of once-a-week class sessions, these students make friends and build a network of support that will last for many years.

Extended sites CROSSING

Evanston 56

From left to right:

Seated: Priscilla Triplett, Ruth Desrosiers, Barbara Fisher, Vicki Eckhart.
Standing: Natalie Manbeck (Academic Coordinator), Sandy Hunt, Lucero Trevino, Stanley Kain, Marcey Friedman, Jennifer Santo, Mohammad Hajher.

Evanston 57

From left to right:

Seated: Jaroslaw Zemela, Frank Jefferies (Instructor), Linda Shaw, Alice Grant, Joseph Kellenyi. Standing: Aveshah Williamson, Raymond Rzaca, Charles Swiger, Michael Pascolla, Lee Mueller, Brian Fecteau, Dave Guzzardo, Nicholas Kaup.

Evanston 51

From left to right:

Margot B. Weinstein
Kelvin Parks
Shandra Findley

Urban 53

From left to right:

Seated: Dennis Kmiec (Instructor), Ed Lekan, John Wallace, Luis Vargas. Standing: Lenora Wells, Veronica Pozo, Tammy Tworek, Tonya Kelley, Danna Gildart, Denise Hope, Georgia Skoulidakas.

Urban 60

From left to right:

Wendy Wilson, Dave Welk, Cecelia Cox, Karen Wilson, Arttice Hill, Pamela Randle, Bruce Clayton, Sherry Smith, Wendy Weaver, Mike Yuen, Dottress Loury, Gena Clay, Jarvis McKee, Robin Reich, Larry Luckett. Not pictured: Claudia Pedroz, Ellen Farley, Meg Herman (Instructor).

Evanston 55

From left to right:

Seated: Carolyn Harris, Mary Kot Almieda. Standing: Toni Galbreath, Shirley Leslie, Gail Nuttall, Pam Amatore, Jennifer Evans, Pam Rose, Barrie Mark, Sue Humm, Eleni Spiropoulos.

Lombard 91

From left to right:

Row 1: Barb Thomas, Lali Singh, Beth Ostrander, Ellie Cozzi, Linzie Coffey, Charlotte Fletcher, Geneva Harbin, Susan DeVillez (Instructor). Row 2: Jamey Stanley-Pennant, William Morgan, Robert Skeels, Jerry Moultry, Edward Hayes, Kim Warden, Anthony Moore. Row 3: Larry Ritchie, Douglas Edgar, Richard Jankovsky.

Lombard 97

From left to right:

Row 1: Todd Yeary, Tom Hehring, Pete McDermott, Rick Krzysko. Row 2: Donna Cline, Diana Thompson, Lee Woods, Sherry Florko, Cindy Scarlett (Instructor). Row 3: Lou Berardi, Sandra Palmer, Lisa Koyne, Barbara Frese, Laurie Harrington, Judy Sleezer, Sandra Polz, Rose Klauba. Row 4: Mike Falcok, Mike Foster, Karen Rosner, Herman Hunter, Lloyd Johnson. Not pictured: Jeff Entler, Glenn Moede.

Lombard 101

From left to right:

Front row: Mike Kascak, David McIntyre, Pamela Hagen, Marge Quimet, Robert VanCraenenbroeck, Jackie Millay, Chuck Bohl. Back row: Ken Schultz, Jose Serrano, Renee Riedelsperger, Rebecca Salomon, Peter Milovic, Dianne Warren, Amy Serritella, Jim Shapley.

Lombard 95

From left to right:

Front row: Cheryl Bland Winbush, Joyce R. O'Connor, Laura Badillo. Back row: Rodney Foertsch, Evelyn Harvey, Kathleen McNally, Christine A. Jankauskas, Bridgette Davis-Sokol, Lorna Norrell,

Lombard 98

From left to right:

Seated: Emma Mehta, Ellis Butler, Jim Hudyma, Mike McDonoghue, Geralyn Mesik, Ramona Brown. Standing: Jill Bjorkquist, Joe Ginski, Joan Hill, Ed Weiss, Dorothy Pitts, Mike Machnik, Mary Martin, Jim Benson, Debbie Winscott.

Lombard 100

From left to right:

Seated: Sharon Weinstein. Standing: Paul Oliver, Margaret Baumann, Dawn Malapanes, Greg Peters, Kevin Groce, Juanna Murphy, Cheryl Kolb, Karen Rich, Susanne Jones, Mark Weimer.

Elgin 2

From left to right:

Seated: Cheryl Dawson, Gwenn Leschke, Ray Sabin, Cathy Skinner, Jane Carter. Standing: Ken Zabielski, Eric Kirkland, Mark Ewen, Chuck Reed, Dennis Eakright, Jon Robeson.

Southwest 18

From left to right:

Seated: Daniel Parrilli, Drew Senesac, Thomas A. Thurston, David J. Gilmore. Standing: Jim Dzialowy, Katherine A. Woods, Jean Cortez, Gary L. Ahrens, Jo Ann Kozlowski, Robinette Collino, Velma Johnson, Bettinna A. Anderson, Joe Terrell, Kathleen Hohn, Teresa M. Martin, Donna Weinberg (Academic Coordinator). Not pictured: Martha Addison (instructor), Stephanie L. Lee.

Northwest 40

From left to right:

Row 1: Dana Garman, Margaret Brown, Linda Cortese, Paula Robinson, Bobbie Mitchell, Valerie Peters. Row 2: Katie O'Shea, Carolyn Saindon, Mary Lou Poulos, Terrie Rudy, Leonard Grodoski, Linda Romano, Brent Hunter, Shelly Lloyd (Instructor). Row 3: Alan Nelson, Duane Altoff, Fitzgerald Anderson, Jeffrey Hedquist. Not pictured: Joseph Sanchez.

Lombard 89

From left to right:

Seated: Debbi Sippel, Kathy Anathan, Pat Johnson, Ann Crilly.
Standing: Tod Isaacson, Mike Cobb, Wayne Gertz, Sally Bala, Jim Toman, Georgia Milosovic, Craig Mealman, Terry Morton.

Lombard 44

From left to right:

Seated: Mary Ellen Hall, Sheila Hill, Lynn Behrens, Pamela Bodzioch. Standing: Gary Ritter, Kenneth Griffith, Shirley Neitzel, Tony Loret DeMola, Dan Lough, Paula Serratore, Katherine Howard, Bonnie Picha, Dona Hess, Larry Reich (Instructor). Not pictured: Todd Genelli.

Lake County 25

From left to right:

Kneeling: Bonnie Wenrich, Kathy Gonekar, Carol Schultz, Tina Castellanel, Carmen Cochrane, Keren Kurowski. Standing: David Kueffner, Chet Splitt, Gust Gustafson, Sherry Hagan, Hope Hogen, Jane Semple, Cranston Bryd, Fran Lesza, Cindy Daley, Gunter Haag, Coleen McKnight, Kate Pyles. Not pictured: Kenneth Dobbie, Arlene Jones.

CROSSING Residence hall

Baker Hall Resident Assistants Discover the Spirit of Teamwork As They Meet the Needs of Students

Laurie Stanley "Stosh" and Cindy Wolski helped plan and also participated in many resident activities such as Midnight Bowling.

During RA training the staff tries to untangle themselves from a human knot. As they discovered, cooperation was the key to "freedom."

Hall Director Jason Erb, with RAs Korrie McCarry, Caren Herbin and Laurie Stanley got loads of laughs during the Family Weekend Variety Show. It was quite a scene as androgynous "Pat" checked into Baker Hall.

This year's staff of eight was all women, and all but one were seniors. They were responsible for general student life in Baker Residence Hall. Under their student leadership, and in cooperation with Baker Hall Council, many successful hall events were carried out.

Cindy & Caren try their best to stand up while back-to-back. Jason Erb is tested for balance and skill.

The RA staff takes a break from training to smile for the camera. From front (L to R): Caren Herbin, Barb Lowth, Grace Hwang, Cindy Wolski, Jodie Reeser, Sue Knapp, Laurie Stanley, Korrie McCarry and Jennifer Koransky.

Korrie McCarry cries tears of joy (?) after trying on the new skirt she got as a holiday gift from Jason Erb. It came wrapped in a plastic designer Jewel bag.

Laurie and Sue have found a hidden team talent. They are the first pair to rise to a standing position while back-to-back with their elbows locked. It is not as easy to do as they made it look, and they didn't even win a prize.

First Floor North and South Units Had the Unique Chance to Share One RA and a Co-ed Atmosphere

Hector Solis greases up his hands with shoe polish as he gets ready to add more "color" to his unit's entry in the Baker pumpkin carving contest.

Sharp shooter Tony Galvan carefully aligns his cue stick behind the cue ball before he hits the "13" ball in the corner pocket.

ONE NORTH (From L TO R): Row 1 - Jesse Green, Bradley Arling, Yinka Fatuga, Terrance Ross. Row 2 - Daryl Gardner, A.J. Johnson, Hector Solis, Cindy Wolski. Row 3 - Ronnie Spencer, James Gardner, Cedric Evans, Cody McLaurine, Justin McGrath, Kouichi Hoshino.

With a calculator to his left and a bag of munchies to his right, Jesse Green readies himself to tackle another tough math problem. No...there is no problem too tough for Jesse.

Ned Pyle looks thrilled to death about the task that is set before him. Reading textbooks and class notes is a past-time we all enjoyed.

Kouichi Hoshino, Aied Alshara, Mariko Aoki and Nurio Furukawa are always happy to head over to the Atrium for a Student Senate party. Dancing and laughing with friends makes the night.

Luvelle Cummings III arranges his papers as he prepares to study for the next round of exams. Study tables on the first floor offer students a lot of space to spread out their stuff.

First floor residents Lisa Weinstein, Brad Arling and Caroline Manke kick back with a cold Sharps non-alcoholic beer during NLU's National Collegiate Alcohol Awareness Week Mocktail Party in the Atrium.

"Two North" and "Two South" Women Find Fun and Friendship During a Year of Involvement

Grace Hwang enjoys a moment of relaxation with her honey, Marc Ecklund, during one of Baker's dance parties held in the main lobby/lounge area.

Delia Martin makes herself comfortable at one of the tables in the 2nd floor lounges as she settles in to study for that next exam.

TWO NORTH (from L to R): Row 1 - Donna Chmielewski, Sandy Walizadehe, Helen Bendik, Julie Huynh. Row 2 - Maria Aiello, Kim Adams, Grace Hwang, Mariko Aoki, Yadira Encina, Julie Albert, Lanh Vo. Row 3 - Darcy Eisler, Tammy Fischer, Janell Sanders, Chris Jahn, Caren Herbin, Nancy Nee.

The women on Baker's 2nd floor have spent the year taking part in all kinds of activities at National-Louis. Some of them were Student Senators and several were on the Student Programming Board. 2nd floor also had many athletes, Family Weekend Committee members and yearbook staff members.

Sandy Walizadehe relaxes in the comfort of her own room. Donna Castello sits at her desk and gets her Mac ready to type up another paper.

TWO SOUTH (from L to R): Row 1 - Kayla Hogan, Kalani Koko, Yasmeena Holland, Tera McCormick. Row 2 - Angie Thompson, Rose Marie Sims, Anglense Jones, Erica Christianson. Row 3 - Tracy Profice, Jamesetta Holloway, Tuesday Warner, Dolores Raya, Kazumi Hiroe, Laurie Stanley. Row 4 - Jannessa Davis, Audrey Smith Karla Randle, Adrienne Morgan, Rosa Mae Sims.

Rose Marie Sims and Dolores Raya look on as Kim Whiting, Jannessa Davis, James Gardner and Anglense Jones take part in a card tournament. Baker Hall Council sponsored several games like this.

Third Floor Women Have A Positive Attitude When It Comes To Enjoying Life in Baker Hall

Dawn Debruhl is caught by surprise as she jumps back behind the bathroom door before the photographer snapped this picture.

Kelly O'Regan is primed for a serious night of studying. A hurricane glassful of Diet Coke and a hefty highlighter is all she needs to get the job done.

THREE NORTH (from L to R): Row 1 - Ingrid Olson, Maria Lopez, Stephanie Musil, Adrienne Kizer, Laura Simpson. Row 2 - Dawn Debruhl, Molly O'Hara, Jill Ziarnik, Sarah Thompson, Kelliann McDermott, Lynda Kryszewski, Barb Lowth, Kim Gordon, Paula Motsinger.

Some third floor women have a living environment that does not make the noise level a top priority. While 1- and 2-north offered a 24-hour quiet living environment, and their south wings (along with 3-north) had a 50/50 schedule, 3-south chose to live without quiet hours. It was more relaxed. As some observed, "It's the party floor." At right: Kelly Packwood goes over some class notes. Jenna Justin and Joan Russo doin' the munchie thing.

THREE SOUTH (from L to R): Row 1 - Theresa Creaney, Lori Dresser, Korrie McCarry, Jen Lee. Row 2 - Renee Higgins, Amy Stahl, Margaret Schultz, Audrey Gaines, Minika Scott, Kenya Willams.

Kerri Beeman takes another sip of her lemonade during a study break in her room. Maybe Kerri has dreamt of having her name in lights, because she decorated her room with just that.

Angie Coppage looks like she's into some serious studying as she settles in to her comfortable study space on a couch in the Three South lounge

Baker Residents Find Themselves Part of a Community That Fosters Building of Friendships

Angelense Jones flashes that fabulous smile as she's caught tidying up 2-South's TV lounge

Donna Castello sits in the front lobby with several Baker Demonstration School kids as they get ready for their annual Halloween trick-or-treating trip through the residence hall.

Grace Hwang, Anisa Strasburg, Mariko Aoki, Erika Staiger, Yadira Encina, Rosa Mae Sims, Lahn Vo, Rose Marie Sims and Jamesetta Halloway enjoy a great end-of-the-year Barbeque at Gilson Park.

Boyfriends often become as much a part of the Baker community as its residents are. Chris Jahn with Brian are evidence of that. Baker Hall's favorite front lobby guard, Leo, could always be counted on to keep track of visitors' guests and for a friendly smile.

Angie Coppage, Jen Lee, Korrie McCarry, Karey Jones, Penny Walker, Kelly O'Regan and Deborah White enjoy decorating their unit's entry in the annual pumpkin carving contest.

Residents really enjoyed creating their own T-shirt designs. Tony Galvan, Stephanie Musil, Marybeth Castelluzzo and Christa Barkdoll get their hands into Baker's tie-dyeing extravaganza.

Baker Residence Hall was blanketed by an unexpected spring snow storm.

UNDERGRAD CROSSING

Mary Adams
Elementary Ed.
Waukegan, IL

Ventura Aguilar
Computer Systems
Cicero, IL

Waqas Akkawi
Business Management
Chicago, IL

Zied Al-Shara
Sports Management
Jordan

Eric Alvarado
Human Services

Christa Barkdoll
Elementary Ed./Psych
Elmhurst, IL

Darcy, Dave, Katy & Ginny were a typical and sometimes atypical clan during the year.

Celeste Bazan
Theatre Education
Albuquerque, NM

Davina Berger
Elementary Ed.
Northbrook, IL

Jose Bohorquez
CISM
Chicago, IL

Vivian Bowers
Human Services
Chicago, IL

Susan Bramson
Elementary Ed.
Skokie, IL

Janine Brown
Early Childhood Ed.
Crestwood, IL

Santiago Bucio
CISM
Chicago, IL

Ernst Cadet
Sports Management
Evanston, IL

Victor Carrillo
CISM
Chicago, IL

Jennifer and Liza get into
'The Slide' at an Evanston Campus dance.

Claudia Carter
Elementary Ed.
Chicago, IL

Sara Caruso
Elementary Ed.
Arlington Hts., IL

Carol Chen
Chicago, IL

Erica Christiansen
Early Childhood Ed.

Wilson A. Cisneros
Business Management
Chicago, IL

Jannessa Davis
Human Services
Bartlett, IL

Kimberly Deets
English
Elmhurst, IL

Sharon Donato
Elementary Ed.
Lombard, IL

Kevin Dorsey
Elementary Ed.
Chicago, IL

Grace and Erica share a friendly smile with the photographer.

Mary Earl
Elementary Ed.
Lombard, IL

Cedric Evans
Human Services
Chicago, IL

Denise Evans
Elementary Ed.
Maryland

William Falla
CISM
Chicago, IL

Barbara Ferguson
Elementary Ed.
Evanston, IL

Adriana Flores
Elementary Ed.
Chicago, IL

Jose Flores
Sports Management
Chicago, IL

Antonio M. Galvan
Elementary Ed.
Highwood, IL

Mary Galvez
Business Admin.
Chicago, IL

Mike and Eric bring their version of the Blues Brothers to Evanston's annual Halloween party.

Hiliana Garcia
Business Management
Chicago, IL

Jesus Garcia
Business Admin.
Chicago, IL

Anamarie Gongola
Elementary Ed.
Downers Grove, IL

Wendi Goodman
Elementary Ed.
Riverwoods, IL

Sandra Gorskey
Elementary Ed.
Wheaton, IL

Jesse Green
Elementary Ed.
Chicago, IL

Mary Hartnett
Elementary Ed.
Villa Park, IL

Renee Higgins
Elementary Ed.
Chicago, IL

Susan Hirsh
Early Childhood Ed.
Highland Park, IL

Lynnane, Sara and Ginny dig right into their pumpkins as they prepare to carve out some jack-o-lantern history.

Jessica Hodges
Elementary Ed.
Chicago, IL

Dave Hoffheimer
Elementary Ed.
Evanston, IL

Koichi Hoshino
Computer Management
Japan

Julie Huynh
Early Chld. Ed./CISM
Chicago, IL

Grace Hwang
Elementary Ed.
Orland Park, IL

Christine Jahn
Human Services/Psych
Rockford, IL

Anglense Jones
Elementary Ed.
Chicago, IL

Michael Kallison
Human Services/Psych
Niles, IL

Kalani Koko
Medical Technology
Hawaii

Cody takes some Baker Dem School boys on the annual trick-or-treating trip through Baker Residence Hall.

Fee Lan Lee
Elementary Ed.
Chicago, IL

Karen Lee
Elementary Ed.
Morton Grove, IL

LaShawn Littrice
Accounting
Chicago, IL

Barb Lowth
Early Childhood Ed.
Des Plaines, IL

Florin Marinescu
Business
Chicago, IL

Danielle M. Martinez
Business
Chicago, IL

Paula McCarthy
Early Childhood Ed.

Tera McCormick
Elementary Ed./Psych.
Rock Island, IL

Gloria Melo
CISM

Margaret and Liza share shark stories at the Evanston Halloween party.

Nancy Nee
Radiation Therapy California

Ginny Newhouse
Elementary Ed.
Maple Park, IL

Hilde Nickles
Elementary Ed.
Chicago, IL

Walter Nickles
Elementary Ed.
Chicago, IL

Manish Pandya
Elementary Ed.
Glencoe, IL

John A. Patrick
Elementary Ed.
Round Lake Beach, IL

Sheryl Phillips
Elementary Ed.
Akron, Ohio

Tracy Profice
Special Education
Chicago, IL

Dolores Raya
Elementary Ed.
Chicago, IL

Regina and Terrance surround a visiting friend with "peace."

Claudia Ann Ridley
Elementary Ed.
Morton Grove, IL

Aleezah Rockler
Elementary Ed.
Wilmette, IL

Jose Rodriguez
Business Admin.
Chicago, IL

Lepoldo Rodriguez
CISM
Chicago, IL

Jeoffrey Rose
English/Theatre
Naperville, IL

Colleen Samen
Elementary Ed.
Mc Henry, IL

Janell Sanders
Theatre Arts
Kankakee, IL

Minica Sanderson
Accounting
Chicago, IL

Laura Savage
Human Services
Chicago, IL

Dave and Katy make sweet music together at the Chicagoland all-campus dinner-dance.

Orhan Senger
Medical Tech.
Turkey

Laura Simpson
Early Childhood Ed.
Evanston, IL

Rosa Mae Sims
Elementary Ed.
Chicago, IL

Rose Marie Sims
Elementary Ed.
Chicago, IL

Audrey Smith
Respiratory Therapy
Chicago, IL

Hector Solis
Elementary Ed.
Chicago, IL

Ronnie R. Spencer
Human Services/Psych.
Chicago, IL

Erika Staiger
Theatre Arts
Virginia

Katrina Stoutmire
Elementary Ed.
Chicago, IL

Lucy squeezes in some leisurely reading before her next class.

Anisa Strasburg
Elementary Ed.
Libertyville, IL

Susan Tabern
Elementary Ed.
Morton Grove, IL

Linda Thomas
Elementary Ed.
Chicago, IL

Anita Warner
Elementary Ed.
Maywood, IL

Lisa Weber
Elementary Ed.
Elk Grove Vil, IL

Eileen Westrom
Elementary Ed.
Lisle, IL

Chris and Darcy get into the spirit of the 60s era as they 'let it all hang out' at Evanston's Rock of Ages dance.

Lauren Wishner
Morton Grove, IL

Horacio Zavala
CISM
Chicago, IL

Jose Zavala
CISM
Chicago, IL

Rob contemplates his tie dying design as he wraps his material. Anamarie gets her rubberbands in place for a dip in the dye. Sarah's not quite sure how she wants to wrap her T-shirt. Angelense is ready to take that next exam! Rosa Mae (or is that Rose Marie?) hams it up for the camera.

Kirsten and Peggy hardly have their minds on breakfast. These "serial" killers are happy to pose with their latest victim at the annual Evanston campus Halloween party. Davina, Susan, Mike, Alece and Kirsten enjoy some laughs together during the "We Can Make You Laugh" game show.

Graduate Students Spend Most Nights in Class, Work During Day

Kelly Berbaum
Elementary Ed
Glenview, IL

Sharon Jozsa
Early Childhood
Chicago, IL

Laura L. Long
MAT EI Ed
McHenry, IL

Olean Scott
Education
Chicago, IL

Heather Teteak
Human Services
Westmont, IL

Masters in Math students Candace Stein and Ginny Olson take a stroll down the main hall in Keck during a break from class. Margaret Bishop Crockford, an M.Ed. student, makes a phonecall home during her class break. Deb Brackett and Terri Kimure, who are both working on Masters degrees in Math, find time to relax and visit when their class takes a break.

Undergrads Enjoyed New Experiences and Friends

Delia Martin, Minika Scott and Angie Coppage are having a great time at a campus party. Wendy Escarcega and Dave Hoffheimer work in the Baker Dem School after-school program, gaining important experience for that future job search. Elementary education students at Lombard plant a tree in honor of Dr. Helen Challand who retired in 1991. Dave Hoffheimer, Katy Hull, Ginny Newhouse and Dave Draftz enjoy the Mardi Gras festivities. Chris Krawazyk sits on the bleachers in the gymnasium and watches others make fools of themselves during Orientation Week Goofy Olympics. Jessica Hodges reads the latest edition of The Vox.

CROSSING SENIORS

Andy Andrews
Psych./Human Services
El Toro, CA

Helen Bendik
Elementary Ed.
Chicago, IL

Jane Bryson
Elementary Ed.
Arlington Hts., IL

Mary A. Carr
Elementary Ed.
Evanston, IL

Martha Casillas
Accounting
Chicago, IL

Michelle Castro
Elementary Ed.
Glenview, IL

Jenny and Lisa "enjoy" one of the horror movies shown by the Commuter Assoc. in Goodman on Halloween.

Laura and Jodie demonstrate the latest dance steps at the "Rock the Ages" dance.

Angelica Contreras
Accounting
Chicago, IL

Cheryl Ann Davis
Music Education
Evanston, IL

Riva Davis
CISM
Chicago, IL

Linda Digirolamo
Elementary Ed.
Downers Grove, IL

Darcy Eisler
Elementary Ed.
Belvidere, IL

Ellen Hanna
Elementary Ed.
Lyons, IL

Laurie, Eric, Jen, Korrie,
Sue and Sam join in the Mardi Gras celebration at the tri-campus dinner dance.

Caren Herbin
Elementary Ed.
Park Ridge, IL

Francine Karris
Elementary Ed.
Evanston, IL

David Kreger
Elementary Ed.
Chicago, IL

Lisa Lenzi
Elementary Ed.
Highland Park, IL

Lisa Martinson Psychology
Skokie, IL

Kelliann McDermott
Special Education
Evanston, IL

Wanda Prinzing
Elementary Ed.
Rockford, IL

Ava Reynolds
Early Childhood Ed.
Vernon Hills, IL

Jennifer Resnik
Early Childhood Ed.
Posen, IL

Nancy Roe
Elementary Ed.
Orland Park, IL

Christine Scarbeck
Early Childhood Ed.
Lake Zurich, IL

Carolyn Smith
Elementary Ed.
Chicago, IL

Andy and Caroline dress for success, the "senior"
way, during the annual Halloween party.

Ana Smoody
Elementary Ed.
Morton Grove, IL

Amy E. Stahl
Early Childhood Ed.
Oswego, IL

Laurie Stanley
Elementary Ed.
Des Plaines, IL

Maria, Caren, Mariko, Helen,
Julie, and Sandy get into the pumpkin guts of the Halloween season.

Cindy and Ernie tediously adjust their pumpkin's hairstyle so that it adds just the right touch to their jack-o-lantern.

Sandy and Jane show pride in their little creation as they ready their "baby" for display with "mama" at Baker Residence Hall's pumpkin carving contest.

Sandra Walizadehe
Human Services
Evanston, IL

Lisa Weinstein
Human Services/Psych.
Glenview, IL

Deborah M. White
Art
Chicago, IL

Cynthia Wolski
Elementary Ed.
Hoffman Estates, IL

Is this a shy Fred?
.....NOT!

Commencement Ceremonies Send Over 1300 Graduates Across Stage

Cases of caps and gowns crowd the Atrium during the week prior to commencement.

Beth Znaniecki and Katy Hull smile with pride in anticipation of the Big Event.

Student speaker from the College of Arts and Sciences, Josephine Lewis. "The nurturing environment generated the feeling that someone cared about you and your learning."

Student speaker from the National College of Education, Kim Alamar. "The belief that education goes above and beyond mere texts was prevalent in the way our instructors taught us."

Student speaker from the College of Mgmt and Business, William Geister. "The management program combines the diversity of human experience with the power of education."

Mohd Khader and Lisa Polack happily begin their recession knowing they leave with that coveted degree and the education it represents Commencement speaker, Dr. Gerald F. Corey, professor of human services and counseling at Cal State Fullerton, receives his honorary degree, Doctor of Humane Letters, from University President Orley R. Herron.

Of the 3,000 degrees awarded to the members of National-Louis University's Class of 1992, nearly 1,300 graduates were present at the commencement ceremonies held on Saturday, June 13. For the second year in a row, the 106th spring graduation exercises were staged at the Rosemont Horizon in Rosemont, Illinois. With almost 6,000 proud onlookers present to share in the day's excitement, the stadium was filled to near-capacity.

As the final words of "America the Beautiful" are sung to close commencement ceremonies for the Class of 1992, Lynda Kryszewski joyously holds up that treasured piece of paper! Andy Andrews, Deborah White, Chris Ptack, Katy Hull and Noelle Soklowski leave the Rosemont Horizon as proud graduates of National-Louis University.

The Little Editor that could . . .

but not without the help of . . .

Cheryl Brewster -- not enough could be said about her outstanding effort, dedication, support and teamwork to get the job done! Her hospitality, creativity, use of the Mac and her supply of Motrin IB's were greatly appreciated.

Misti O'Connell -- our Herff Jones Representative who was always available for last minute advice and assistance when needed.

Herff Jones Yearbook Co. -- for production of our book.

Helix (Plaza del Lago) -- Jack Lieber, Frank Warren, Dee Bertsche and Keith for our film processing.

Sanford Studios -- Steven Breitberg for taking faculty and student mug shots.

Steve Woltman Photography -- for coming through with the volleyball and basketball photos.

Darcy Eisler -- for her hard work and dedication, this year as well as last year, designing layouts and writing copy until all hours.

Julie Huynh -- for the patience and responsibility she showed in her effort to take yearbook photos.

Christa Barkdoll -- for taking photos and for collecting many personal photos from others.

Myra Minuskin -- for her cooperation and contribution to the Sports Section.

Mike Bila -- for collecting extended site info and photos.

Amy Muehleip -- for contributions to the drama page.

Carolyn Bair & Larry Lasko -- for acknowledging my hard work and dedication to the yearbook and school. Your encouraging words & support kept me on track.

Those who helped identify faces in photos -- THANKS!

Helen A. Bendik

Editor-in-Chief, "The National" 1992 and "The National" 1991

Another year has slipped away from us, along with the completion of the 1991-92 yearbook. Many weeknights, vacation days, and literally hundreds of hours were put into this book.

Our shortage of staff members had us working closer and harder than ever before to meet deadlines, design layouts and write copy. We tried to capture the true "thoughts of National-Louis" as we tracked our way through the year.

A brief message from me... Don't sit back in the caboose and let others lead your life. Take the initiative, be your own engineer. As you embark on your journey, you decide which tracks lead to your success.

There will always be a light at the end of the tunnel, as long as you have determination to reach it. We reached it, with the completion of this book! Special thanks goes to Cheryl Brewster, co-engineer and friend. She was the only one to stay aboard to our final destination--the Herff Jones Rail Yard.

